The Frist Foundation	The basic mission is to invest in nonprofit organizations in Metropolitan Nashville in ways that strengthen their ability to provide services. As a private foundation, much of the Foundation's work involves grant making. However, the Foundation also takes an active role in initiating special programs to enhance the community in a variety of other ways.	www.fristfoundation.org	In the past five years, the Frist Foundation has given more than $50 million in grants to the nonprofit community.	Grants are made throughout the year and can run from $1,000 to $250,000, though a more typical range is $3,000 to $20,000. While there are no deadlines for requests, larger grants are typically approved at board meetings taking place in January, April, July and October. Depending on the timing of the submission, it could take as long as three months for grant approval. Grants of less than $25,000 are usually decided within a month of receipt, often much more quickly. Visit the website for more information.
The Hospital Corporation of America (HCA) Foundation	The HCA Foundation makes charitable contributions to 501(c)3 organizations in Middle Tennessee. All requests outside of Middle Tennessee should be submitted to the nearest HCA Healthcare facility or division office. A map of HCA facilities may be accessed at HCAHealthcare.com. The areas of focus are health and wellbeing, childhood and youth development, and arts.	http://www.hcacaring.org/grants/	The HCA Foundation has contributed more than $154 million in grants to over 400 organizations and agencies in Middle Tennessee since 1997.	New applicants are asked to complete a preliminary one- to two-page letter of inquiry to the Foundation at Corp.FoundationGifts@HCAHealthcare.com to ensure that the proposed project, organization, and goals align with HCA Foundation priorities. Please describe the proposed project, its goals and objectives, and the approximate level of funding required. To be considered for a grant, please allow sufficient time (approximately 2 wks.) for Foundation staff to review and follow up with the applicant organization.
Kemmons Wilson Family Foundation (KWFF)	The areas of focus are enriching education, inspiring youth, promoting health, and improving the community.	http://www.kwff.org/	Historical data is not provided on the website.	Before creating an account and starting your application, please read over the Grant Application Guidelines. If you believe your organization meets all of the requirements for funding, contact Carrie Burke, Director of Grant Relations at cburke@kwff.org or 901-726-3147.

The Kresge Foundation	Focus areas are integration of health and human services, institutional investments in community health, and community-driven solutions.	www.kresge.org/programs/health	Since 2014, Kresge has made investments in Memphis totaling $5.4 million to spur economic and community development. In 2017, 10 nonprofit organizations in Memphis, Tennessee, were awarded $1.3 million in grants by Kresge after an open call for proposals to boost opportunity for city residents with low incomes.	There are six programs which use grant dollars to fund operating support, project grants and planning grants to advance their strategic objectives as described in the Programs section of the website. Some programs accept applications on an on-going basis. Others proactively invite or solicit applications from individual organization. Visit the website to learn more about the grants made in each program.
The Lyndhurst Foundation	The Lyndhurst Foundation identifies and invests in initiatives, institutions, and people and programs that contribute to the long-term livability and resilience of the greater Chattanooga region.	www.lyndhurstfoundation.org	The website provides a lists of grant awards by year categorized by arts and culture, conservation and physical health, downtown and urban development, innovative economy, education, and other grants.	Lyndhurst conducts quarterly board meetings which typically occur in February, May, August and November. Proposals are due six weeks in advance of the board meeting dates. For further information, please contact Catherine Cox at (423)756-0767.
Tennessee Health Foundation (Blue Cross Blue Shield of Tennessee)	The current focus of the Foundation is projects which develop healthy living practices resulting in better health decisions, medical care, and enhanced quality of life for generations to come.	www.bcbst.com/about/community/TN-health-foundation	Provide more than $10 million each year in community support through BlueCross BlueShield of Tennessee Health Foundation, Community Trust, and corporate giving.	To begin the application process, email a cover sheet and "letter of inquiry" to Dawn Weber at Dawn_Weber@bcbst.com . If your project meets the criteria, you will be sent an invitation within 30 days to submit a full proposal packet.
Vanderbilt University	The Center for Nonprofit Management and Vanderbilt University have established a partnership that allows a nonprofit executive, or senior staff member to attend the two-year Executive MBA program at Vanderbilt's Owen Graduate School of Management through a sponsorship worth approximately $100,000.	http://www.cnm.org/CNMMembership/Higher-Education/Vanderbilt-University	The sponsorship recipient will be chosen by the Vanderbilt Scholarship Selection Committee.	To qualify, a candidate must be a senior-level staff member currently serving a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization and must demonstrate a past and future commitment to serving in the nonprofit sector. Visit the website for more information or call (615) 322-3120.
